

I pay to have my telephone number nonpublished. I do want unsolicited companies calling at all hours during the day and night, leaving messages on my answering machine, calling during bedtime, or interrupting conversations that I choose to have. It is extremely annoying, and the automated contact calls are even worse. That is why I choose to enroll in the do not call program. This program protects my rights.